I'll pocket you a rainbow
I'll pocket you the sun
Can someone tell me where did you go
I don't care if you're gone

I know it's late
Run and hide from the sun's rays
We could stop for a cool shade
On a tree beside the lake

I'm having all these thoughts
I'll write them in a card
And send it through a common friend
For you on a weekend

I know it's late
Please tell me my love how to break
I'm strumming mellow in my tune
Can I buy a smile
